Re: Estate of Parker v. Polaris Industries, et al.
Docket No.: 06-cv-4227 (GEB)

Dear Judge Brown:

Your Honor may recall that this office represents the interests of Polaris Industries, Inc. ("Polaris"), a defendant in the above-referenced matter. In connection with this matter, we received, under cover dated May 12, 2010, a proposed order for judgment in favor of all defendants prepared by counsel for O'Neill's Place relative to the no-cause jury verdict rendered on May 10, 2010. Kindly allow this letter to serve as Polaris's formal objections to the proposed Final Judgment of Dismissal With Prejudice.

Specifically, Polaris requests the following changes:

1. The name of the law firm appearing on behalf of Polaris should be changed from "The Gibbons Law Firm" to "Gibbons P.C."; and
 2. The paragraph which currently reads "Ordered that final judgment on the jury's verdict is hereby entered in favor of defendants, Polaris Industries, Inc. and O'Neill's Place, dismissing all claims against them, with prejudice and without costs" should be revised to "Ordered that final judgment on the jury's verdict is hereby entered in favor of defendant, O'Neill's Place, dismissing all claims against it, with prejudice and without costs; and it is";
- and-
3. We further request that the following provision be inserted directly below the language referenced in No. 2 above: "Ordered that final judgment on the jury's verdict is hereby entered in favor of defendant, Polaris Industries, Inc., dismissing all claims against it, with prejudice and with costs."
